

103^D CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. J. RES. 348

Declaring April 10 as “Son-in-Law Day”.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 24, 1994

Mr. RANGEL introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service

JOINT RESOLUTION

Declaring April 10 as “Son-in-Law Day”.

Whereas the people of the United States should celebrate the contributions of sons-in-law to the stability of the American family;

Whereas a national day of celebration would give sons-in-law
the recognition they deserve for their positive contributions to the community;

Whereas a day should be set aside to focus on the positive qualities of sons-in-law;

Whereas the people of the United States should recognize that there are, and always have been, African-American men who have been good fathers, husbands, and sons-in-law;

Whereas African-American men, including sons-in-law, should be proud of their contributions and strive to inspire their sons to carry on this heritage;

Whereas sons-in-law are providers, protectors, and friends of their children, their spouses, parents, and in-laws;

Whereas sons-in-law are the real role models, teachers, and inspirations to the young men who look up to them;

Whereas mothers and fathers would have a day to thank their daughters' husbands for their labor, loyalty, and love;

Whereas all men who are responsible and loyal to their spouses and their families should be especially rewarded by their in-laws with a day of recognition; and

Whereas the family is the future of this great country and sons-in-law are vital links in holding our families together: Now, therefore, be it

- 1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
- 2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 That April 10 is designated as "National Son-in-Law
- 4 Day".

